

Entre's Sam Deihls Honored with AIRE's Frank Mahoney Award; Entre's 3rd Winner in 7 Years

Arlington Heights, IL (November 2023) - The Association of Industrial Real Estate Brokers (AIRE) recognized Sam Deihls as the recipient of the industry's Frank Mahoney Award for calendar year 2022. The Frank Mahoney Award recognizes outstanding leadership, community service and real estate brokerage success among young industrial real estate professionals with less than five years of experience. The award was established in 1989 as an annual award to recognize a young industrial real estate professional who embodies the character traits displayed by the late Frank Mahoney. The winner is a respected and productive member of the real estate community and truly embodies the pillars AIRE stands for, including collaboration, community and conducting business in a manner that is above reproach. The award considers transaction volume along with giving back to the community, supporting the industry and serving the needs of clients.

Sam joined Entre in 2018 and has been an instrumental part of the growth and development of his team. Sam has evolved into a consistent producer who is well respected by clients and colleagues in the industry. He has helped train and mentor other brokers in the firm and has taken on initiatives to help grow the company. Sam is very active in community service as an active member of AIRE and recently joined the membership committee, the McHenry County EDC, YREP (Young Real Estate Professionals), and several other community and business groups. Sam has been very active for most of his life in his local community where he grew up. He has completed over 150 hours of service to various organizations and is constantly giving back to his community. Sam has also committed a great deal of time and energy to promoting the preservation and conservation of our wildlife habitats in the area.

Entre's Managing Broker Dan Jones, SIOR, stated "Very few brokers in our industry are at a stage in their career where after 4 years they are involved in significant and complex projects like Sam is. In addition to being a top financial producer for Entre, Sam's work ethic and positive attitude are big contributors to our culture here. We would proudly put Sam in front of any of our clients, partners, prospects and peers as we know he will always represent us well." Sam joins Entre's Mike DeSerto and Cory Kay as recipients of this prestigious award, marking Entre's third winner in the past seven years.
